

WHITAKER CHALK

SWINDLE & SCHWARTZ PLLC

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Construction-Related Personal Injury Cases

Represented a masonry subcontractor over negligence claims by a subcontractor who fell off scaffolding and suffered brain damage at a large commercial construction site in San Antonio, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $20 million in total damages.

Represented a drywall subcontractor over negligence claims by an employee who fell from a scaffolding at a commercial construction site in Dallas, Texas and died. The Plaintiff alleged over $1 million in total damages.

Represented a subcontractor against claims of negligence related to a dump truck that collided with a school bus in Bellmeade, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $3 million in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against claims that an outdoor gas grill in an outdoor kitchen that was allegedly defectively installed that led to serious burns and permanent disfigurement of Plaintiff's legs and torso in Parker County, Texas. The plaintiff alleged $1 million in total damages.