

WHITAKER CHALK

SWINDLE & SCHWARTZ PLLC

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Single-Family Residential Construction

Represented a general contractor against alleged defective construction of a custom home in Denton County, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $1 million in damages.

Represented a general contractor against allegedly defective construction of a custom home in Frisco, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $500,000 in damages.

Represented a contractor hired to remodel a custom home in Collin County, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $360,000 in damages.

Represented a general contractor against allegedly defective construction of a custom home in University Park, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $270,000 in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against allegedly defective construction of a custom home in Highland Park, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $400,000 in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against claims of allegedly defective construction of a custom home in Austin, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $115,000 in total damages.

Represented a water proofing subcontractors against claims of allegedly defective water proofing of a custom home in Austin, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $55,000 in total damages.

Represented a subcontractor labor to a general contractor against claims of allegedly defective remodeling of a custom home in Midland, Texas. The plaintiff alleged over $1 million in total damages.

Represented a stucco installer against claims of allegedly defective construction of custom homes on a golf course in Grapevine, Texas. The case was referred to arbitration. The plaintiff alleged over $1.9 million in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against claims of allegedly defective construction of a house in Dallas, Texas. The plaintiff alleged over $100,000 in total damages.

Represented a framing subcontractor over allegedly defective installation of an outdoor kitchen that led to a fire in the Preston Hollow area of Dallas, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $1.9 million in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against claims of allegedly defective construction of a house and defective grading and drainage resulting in flooding in Austin, Texas. The plaintiff alleged over $490,000 in total damages.

Represented a general contractor against claims of allegedly defective construction of a house including foundation defects in Dallas, Texas. The plaintiff alleged over $1.19 million in total damages.

Representing a general contractor in a lawsuit over allegedly defective installation of retaining wall that fell in Palo Pinto County, Texas. The Plaintiff has alleged over $3.6 million in total damages.