

WHITAKER CHALK

SWINDLE & SCHWARTZ PLLC

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Commercial Construction

Represented a roofer in an alleged defective roof case installed on an office building in Fort Worth, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $20,000 dollars in total damages.

Represented a general contractor in a case over alleged defective construction of a car wash in Dumas, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $1 million in total damages.

Representing a general contractor over alleged defective construction of a restaurant in Flower Mound, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $200,000 in total damages.

Represented a general contractor over alleged defective construction of a restaurant in the Deep Ellum area of Dallas, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $560,000 in total damages.

Represented a concrete contractor against allegations of defective construction of shopping center in Denton, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $1.4 million in total damages.

Represented a general contractor over allegedly defective construction of a church conference center in Corpus Christi, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $4.7 million in total damages.

Represented a stucco installer of allegedly defective construction of two banks in Austin, Texas. Plaintiff alleged over $7.1 million in total damages.

Represented a water injection foundation company over allegedly defective construction of a 46,000 square foot movie theater in Flower Mound, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $7 million in total damages.