

WHITAKER CHALK

SWINDLE & SCHWARTZ PLLC

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Multi-Family Residential Construction

Represented a roofer against allegations of allegedly defective construction of a large, multi-story college dormitory in Huntsville, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $11 million in total damages.

Represented a stucco installer against claims of allegedly defective construction of multi-unit townhomes in Austin, Texas. The Plaintiffs alleged over $1 million in total damages.

Represented a framer against claims of allegedly defective framing of balconies in an apartment complex in Austin, Texas. The case was referred to arbitration. The Plaintiff alleged over $3.75 million in total damages.

Represented a framer against claims of defective framing in an apartment complex in Austin, Texas. The Plaintiff alleged over $2.15 million in total damages.

Represented a framer against claims of allegedly defective construction of a 173 unit complex of townhomes in Irving, Texas. The case was referred to arbitration. The Plaintiffs alleged over $10 million in damages.

Represented a stucco installer against claims of allegedly defective construction of 39 townhomes in Grapevine, Texas. The case was referred to arbitration. The Plaintiffs alleged over $1.9 million in total damages.

Represented a waterproofer and roofer against claims of allegedly defective construction of a 144 unit townhome complex in Houston, Texas. The case was referred to arbitration. The Plaintiffs alleged over $19 million in total damages.

Represented a stucco installer against claims of allegedly defective construction of a 356 unit apartment complex in Dallas, Texas. The Plaintiffs alleged over $12 million in total damages.