Background

Scot Pierce is a proud Fort Worth native and an experienced commercial litigator, corporate finance, and bankruptcy attorney. A large part of his practice is dedicated to representing contractors, businesses, financial entities and secured creditors.

Before returning to Fort Worth in 2002, Scot worked as a Dallas County Assistant District Attorney where he tried over 60 jury trials and numerous bench trials. He has been on the International Factoring Association's recommended attorney list since 2011 and has been voted one of the Top Attorneys in Fort Worth by Fort Worth, Texas Magazine and 360 West Magazine for several years. Scot is also listed as an AM Best "recommended Insurance Attorney." A prolific writer and speaker, Scot received an award in 2010 from the State Bar of Texas for Best Series of Articles – Substantive Law for his articles on creditor rights. For his insurance clients, Scot is also set up for billing both under Legal Software Systems, Inc. billing system (LSS) and Legal Express billing system (LegalEx).

Scot has extensive experience in single-family, multi-family and commercial construction cases representing both general contractors and subcontractors in litigation and arbitration around the state of Texas.
