Background

Mark practices primarily in the areas of trust and estate planning, probate administration, business planning, and business transactions. Mark is certified in Estate Planning and Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He has extensive wealth-transfer and tax-planning experience and can assist any client in need of an estate plan—from high net-worth clients with complex, taxable estates to clients that only require simple Wills. He also has extensive experience with probate and trust administration, including contested matters.

Mark's clients benefit from his expertise and his desire to honor their lifetime achievements now and for generations to come with meaningful asset-protection and transfer plans.
